2022

You're Invited to Exhibit at the 2022 PENNBOC Conference & Trade Show!

PENNBOC's Conference is the right place -- a neutral place -- to reach many building code professionals in one place. Last year we had over 120 participants.

The 2022 Conference and Trade Show will be held on September 21-23, 2022, at the Historic Hotel Bethlehem, Bethlehem, PA.

Exhibiting your products and services in a non-confrontational environment benefits your company, your customers, and the code officials you will meet on the job site. As an exhibitor, you may also attend educational sessions and partake in all meals at no additional cost to build your knowledge of codes, their application and enforcement.

Available options include exhibiting your products, sponsoring conference events, and advertising in the conference program.
