CRIMINAL CHARGES

• HOW MIGHT YOU BE INVOLVED WITH CRIMINAL CASE?

 ANYTHING NEED TO CONSIDER WITH POTENTIAL CITATION FOR CODES VIOLATIONS AND CRIMINAL CHARGES AGAINST OWNER?

DOUBLE JEOPARDY SCENARIO?

- Double jeopardy could result if defendant pleaded guilty to the codes violation before any additional criminal charges could be filed
- Governmental agencies should coordinate actions
- Safe approach is to file all possible criminal charges at same time from the same incident to avoid double jeopardy issues
- Check with your Solicitor or local DA office prior to filing summary changes if other criminal charges are possible from the same incident

WHEN?

WHY?

HOW?

UCC 403.86. Right of entry to inspect.

- (a) A construction code official may enter a building, structure or premises during normal business hours or at a time agreed to by the owner or owner's agent to perform inspections under the Uniform Construction Code, to enforce Uniform Construction Code provisions or if there is reasonable cause to believe a condition on the building, structure or premises violates the Uniform Construction Code or which constitutes an unsafe condition.
- (b) A construction code official may enter a building, structure or premises when the official presents credentials to the occupant and receives permission to enter.
- (c) A construction code official may not enter a building, structure or premises that is unoccupied or after normal business hours without obtaining permission to enter from the owner or the owner's agent.
- (d) A construction code official may seek the assistance of a law enforcement agency to gain entry to enforce the Uniform Construction Code when the construction code official has reasonable cause to believe that the building, structure or premises is unsafe.
- (e) This section shall be used in conjunction with the Fire and Panic Act.

2018 IPMC: 104.3 RIGHT OF ENTRY

Where it is necessary to make an inspection to enforce the provisions of this code, or whenever the code official has reasonable cause to believe that there exists in a structure or upon a premises a condition in violation of this code, the code official is authorized to enter the structure or premises at reasonable times to inspect or perform the duties imposed by this code, provided that if such structure or premises is occupied, the code official shall present credentials to the occupant and request entry. If such structure or premises is unoccupied, the code official shall first make a reasonable effort to locate the owner, owner's authorized agent or other person having charge or control of the structure or premises and request entry. If entry is refused, the code official shall have recourse to the remedies provided by law to secure entry.

City of Reading: Property Maintenance Code ~ Right of Entry

104.4.1 Refusal of entry.

If any owner, occupant or other person in charge of a structure subject to the provision of this code refuses, impedes, inhibits, interferes with, restricts or obstructs entry and free access to every part of the structure or premises where inspection authorized by this code is sought, the administrative authority may promptly apply for a search or inspection warrant to a court of competent jurisdiction and shall supply all necessary affidavits and testimony to indicate that there is a reasonable or probable cause to conduct an inspection. For the purpose of this section, a reasonable or probable cause to gain access for an inspection shall include without being limited to the following:

104.4.1 Refusal of entry.

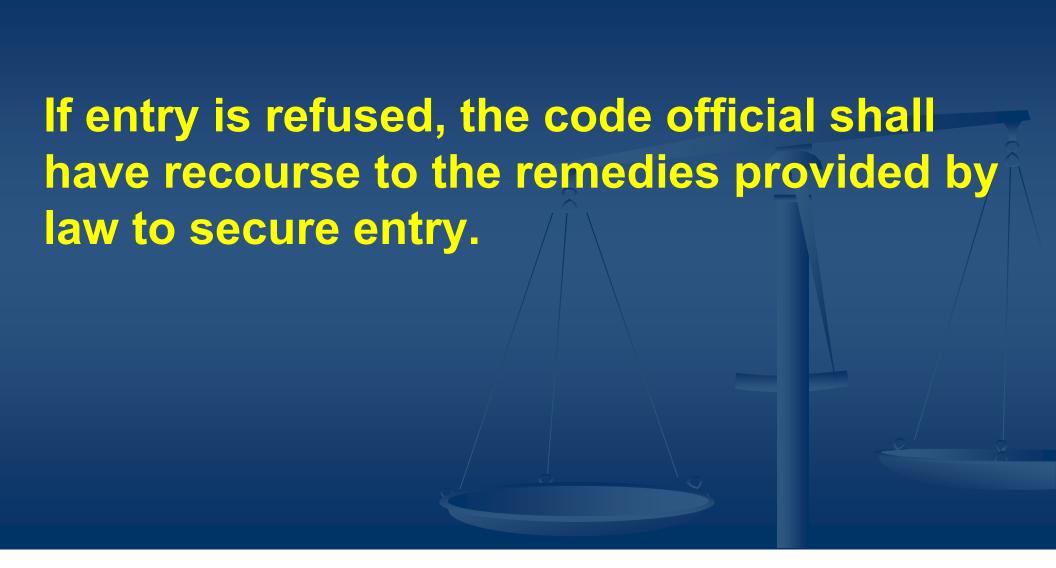

- 1. That the inspection of the area is part of a planned routine inspection being conducted pursuant to a systematic or concentrated code enforcement program in that portion of the City; or
- 2. That the Property Maintenance Division, after investigation or upon information received, has knowledge, information or a reasonable belief that a violation of this code or other codes and ordinances of the City exist; or
- 3. That such entry is for the purpose of inspecting a previous notice of violation; or
- 4. That the Property Maintenance Division has received a complaint concerning a violation on or within the premises; or
- 5. That such entry is necessary to determine if the building, structure, premises, dwelling or dwelling units meet the standards of this code and building, fire, and health codes and for the safety and welfare of the public.

104.4.2 Right of entry by owner.

Every occupant of a dwelling unit, building, structure or premises shall give the owner thereof, or his agent or employee access to any part of such dwelling, dwelling unit, building, structure or premises, at all reasonable times for the purpose of conducting inspections to determine whether or not violation of the code may exist, or for the purpose of making such repairs or alterations as are necessary to effect compliance with the provisions of this code or with any lawful rule or regulation adopted or any lawful order issued pursuant to the provisions of this code.

104.4.3 Notification to tenants.

Every owner of a dwelling unit, building, structure or premises shall give the tenants thereof notice of an inspection and obtain their authorization to grant a code official entry to their unit. If the tenant(s) object(s) to entry by the code official, the owner shall so notify the code official.

FOURTH AMENDMENT

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

FOURTH AMENDMENT TO CODE OFFICIALS

42 U.S.C. § 1983

Statute creating civil action for violation of civil rights

MUNICIPAL LIABILITY ~ 42 U.S.C. § 1983

An individual may be liable if he/she violates a constitutional right

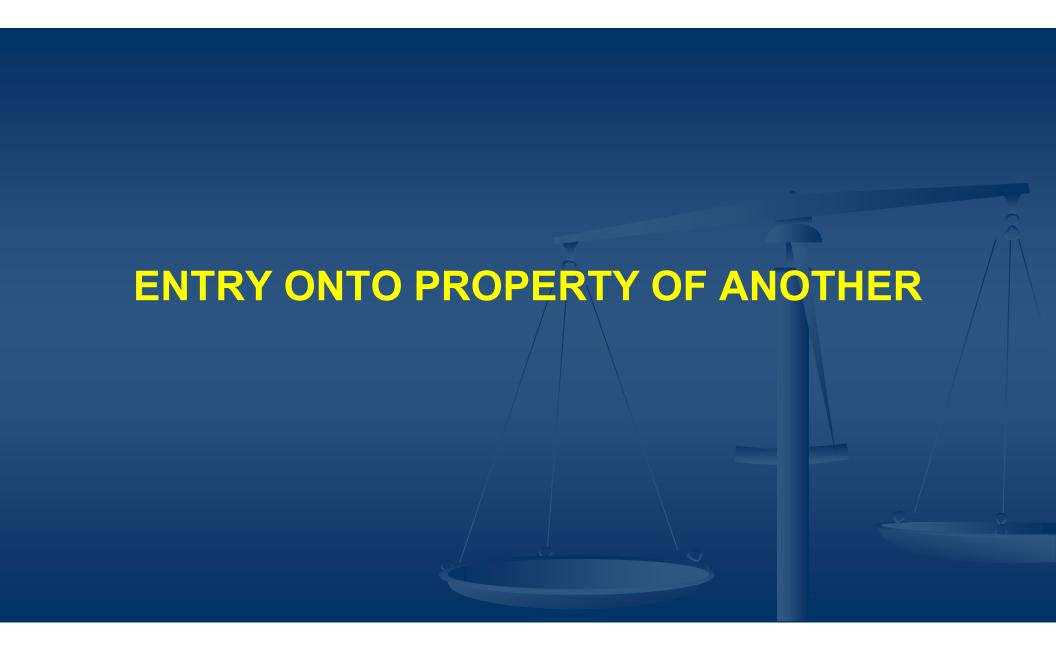

A municipality may only be liable when the alleged constitutional transgression is caused by a policy, regulation or decision officially adopted by the governing body or informally adopted by custom. Monell v. New York City Dept. of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658 (1978)

"Policy" is made when a decision maker possessing final authority to establish municipal policy with respect to the action issues an official proclamation, policy or edict.

A course of conduct is considered to be a "custom" when, though not authorized by law, such practices of state officials are so permanently and well settled as to virtually constitute law.

QUESTIONS?

YOU MAY NOT ENTER PRIVATE PROPERTY UNLESS YOU HAVE A LEGAL RIGHT TO BE THERE!

EXCEPTIONS TO SEARCH WARRANT REQUIREMENT FOR ENTRY ONTO PROPERTY

- Fourth Amendment does not apply (unreasonable expectation of privacy)
- Consent to enter property
- Exigent circumstances
- Plain view doctrine

REASONABLE EXPECTATION OF PRIVACY

Has the individual manifested a subjective expectation of privacy in the object of the challenged search? and

Is society willing to recognize that expectation as reasonable?

California v. Ciraolo, 476 U.S. 207, 211 (1986).

CONSENT TO SEARCH

Common Authority:

Where "common authority", either party may give consent. United States v. Matlock, 415 US 164 (1974).

Common authority does not rest upon the law of property; rather, it rests on mutual use of the property by persons generally having joint access or control for most purposes Id.

But....

Apparent Authority:

Public official reasonably mistakes the actual authority of the party consenting to the search.

The determination of consent to enter is judged upon an objective standard: would the facts available to the official at the moment warrant a person of reasonable caution in the belief that the consenting party had authority over the premises.

Commonwealth v. Quilles, 619 A.2d 291 (Pa. Super 1993).

EXIGENT CIRCUMSTANCES

Warrantless entry may be legal when there is compelling need for official action and no time to secure a warrant

VIOLATIONS IN "PLAIN VIEW"

89

Violation is in plain view;

- Its incriminatory character is immediately apparent
- Official is lawfully in the place where the seizure occurs and has a lawful right of access to the object
- Plain view is NOT a right to enter property without a warrant

Warning:

PROBABLE CAUSE

Search warrant to investigate criminal activity:

Probable cause to believe that a search will reveal evidence of criminal behavior.

Administrative search warrant for non-criminal inspections:

Probable cause is met by finding a reasonable relationship between the property maintenance code and the property to be searched. Probable cause is measured in terms of the "reasonableness" of the search.

Camara v. Municipal Court of the City and County of San Francisco, 387 U.S. 523 (1967); See v. Seattle, 387 U.S. 541 (1967).

SEARCH WARRANT BASED UPON: PLANNED / ROUTINE INSPECTION

Court will look at:

- The purpose of the ordinance;
- Relationship between the ordinance and the property to be searched including but not limited to:
 - The passage of time between inspections;
 - The nature of the building;
 - The condition of the entire area;
 - Important: Code Enforcement Officer need not have a specific knowledge of the condition of the particular dwelling.

Camara v. Municipal Court of the City and County of San Francisco, 387 U.S. 523 (1967).

MUST THE TENANT HAVE NOTICE OF THE INSPECTION / SEARCH WARRANT?

According to Camara:

[M]ost citizens allow inspections of their property without a warrant. Thus, as a practical matter and in light of the Fourth Amendment's requirement that a warrant specify the property to be searched, it seems likely that warrants should normally be sought only after entry is refused unless there has been a citizen complaint or there is other satisfactory reason for securing immediate entry.

WARRANT BASED UPON SUSPECTED CODE VIOLATION

Provide the Judge with sufficient facts to establish a reasonable need to enter the property:

- Description of Code to be Enforced
- Passage of time
- Nature of building
- Condition of area
- Complaints
- Specific knowledge of conditions
- Any other facts known to you
